WISCONSIN STATE FORESTS

GOVERNOR KNOWLES STATE FOREST

Managed to provide: places to have fun, resource protection, wildlife habitat and products we need—like paper and wood.

ORIGIN: Established in 1970 as the St. Croix River State Forest, this property was re-dedicated in 1982 to honor former Governor Warren Knowles for his involvement in conservation and recreation.

FOREST CHARACTERISTICS: This 55-mile-long forest borders the St. Croix National Scenic Riverway, into which hundreds of streams and seepages flow.

ACTIVITIES: Choose from over 120 miles of recreational trails, including areas for campers, backpackers, horseback riders and hunters.

UNIQUE FEATURE: The St. Croix River is one of two national wild and scenic riverways in Wisconsin.
